1. Equal Opportunity Employer

AG Composites provides all individuals with equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by law. At AG Composites we will hire and or promote based on skills, experience and potential.

Any employee who feels they have been discriminated against by any employee or owner at AG Composites on the basis of any of the aforementioned items should notify the HR rep immediately.

We want all employees to treat others with respect and professionalism and we will always strive to have a positive working environment. Furthermore, we will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment of our employees by co-workers, supervisors, customers, or vendors. Any form of discrimination or harassment will be handled in accordance with our Progressive Discipline Policy.

2. Orientation and Training

To help you become familiar with the Company and our way of doing things, the Company will provide an orientation and training session within the first few days after you begin work. Some of the content of the session will depend in large part on the nature of your responsibilities, while other parts will be applicable to all employees. In addition, the Company may periodically offer additional training or educational programs. Some programs may be voluntary, while others will be required. Our goal is to give you all the training you need to be successful. If at any time you feel “untrained” immediately notify your supervisor.

3. Immigration Law Applicable to All Employees

The Company complies with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 by employing only U.S. citizens and non-citizens who are authorized to work in the United States. All employees are asked on their first day of work to provide original documents verifying the right to work in the United States and to sign a verification form required by federal law (Form I-9). If you cannot verify your right to work in the United States within three (3) days of hire, the Company is required by law to terminate your employment.

4. Hours of Work

- a. Production Day Shift: The workweek is generally Monday through Thursday, with normal operating hours from 6:00 am to 4:30 pm, with 30 minutes for lunch.
- b. Production Night Shift (as needed): The workweek is generally Monday through Thursday, with normal operating hours from 5:00 pm to 3:30 am.
- c. Production Weekend Shift (as needed): The workweek is generally Friday through Sunday, with normal operating hours from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm.
- d. Office Staff: The workweek is generally Monday through Friday, with normal operating hours from 8:30 am to 5 pm, with 30 minutes for lunch.

To meet operational needs there may be overtime. Hourly employees will be paid time and a half.

5. Attendance Policy

Non-exempt (hourly) employees' attendance will be rated on a point system. After 12 months, all points will be restarted on the employee's attendance sheet. The company reserves the right to terminate an employee at any time for attendance violations based on the Alabama “at-will” law.

5.1 Definitions

5.1.1 Absent

An employee is deemed absent when he/she is unavailable for work as scheduled and such time off was not approved in advance by the Production Manager. Employees must bring in a doctor's note if he/she calls in sick. Failure to bring in a doctor's note may be considered a "no show".

5.1.2 Tardy

An employee is deemed to be tardy when he/she:

- Fails to report for work at the scheduled work time. In these instances, managers may replace the tardy employee for the full shift;
- Leaves work prior to the end of assigned/scheduled work time without approval;
- Takes an extended meal or break period without approval

5.1.3 Failure to Clock in/out

Employees are required to follow established guidelines for recording their actual hours worked. A missed clock in / out is a violation of this policy and includes:

- Failure to clock in/out when their shift begins/ends
- Failure to clock in/out for the meal break

5.2 Point System

	Points / Days	Discipline Step and Action
3 Tardies = 1 point	2 points	Step 1: Verbal Warning
3 Missed Clocks = 1 point	4 points	Step 2: Written / Final Warning
	6 points	Step 3: Termination
Total # of Days Absent (unauthorized) Consecutive or Nonconsecutive	3 days	Step 1: Verbal Warning
	6 days	Step 2: Written / Final Warning
	9 days	Step 3: Termination
Single Day of No Call / No Show	1 day	Step 1: Verbal Warning
	2 days	Step 2: Written / Final Warning
	3 days	Step 3: Termination

5.3 Inclement Weather

The Company is open for business unless there is a government-declared state of emergency or unless you are advised otherwise by your supervisor. There may be times when we will delay opening, and on rare occasions, we may have to close. Use common sense and your best judgment when traveling to work in inclement weather. When in doubt, call your supervisor or the company office for guidance.

5.4 Voting Leave

Alabama law requires employers to grant employees up to one hour of unpaid leave to vote in any election. To be eligible for voting leave, an employee must be registered to vote and must make a reasonable request for the leave from his or her employer. An employer is exempt from the leave requirement if the polls open two hours before an employee's work begins or remain open one hour after an employee's work ends. If an employer is required to provide an employee time off to vote, it may specify the hours in which the employee may be absent. Alabama Stat. 17-1-5

5.5 Jury Duty

In accordance with Alabama law AG Composites will give time off, with pay, to any full-time employee who is summoned for jury duty, provided the employee shows his or her supervisor the court summons.

An employee will not have to use any accrued vacation or sick days for time spent responding to a summons for jury duty, participating in the jury selection process, or actually serving on a jury.

5.6 Employee Breaks

Employees are authorized two 15 minute breaks during the workday and one 30 minute lunch. Break times on the production floor are typically at 9:30 am and 2:30 pm and are indicated by an alarm over the speaker system. Employees have a 30 minute lunch break which typically occurs at 11:30 am. Breaks are not required by state or federal law and can be taken away. The company leadership reserves the right to alter break times based on the needs of the company.

Repeated abuse of break times can result in termination of employment.

6. Benefits

Eligibility: Company provided benefits are for full-time employees and become effective the first day of the month following 60 consecutive days of employment. Temporary, part-time or on-call employees are not eligible.

If terminated from employment, employees will not be paid for any unused vacation or sick time.

6.1 Vacation

AG Composites offers earned vacation time with pay to provide opportunities for rest and personal convenience.

6.1.1 Vacation Accrual

Vacation time begins to accrue after 6 months of uninterrupted employment. Vacation time is accrued at the end of the employee's work anniversary. This means that your vacation year begins on the date you started work with our company and runs until the day before that date in the next calendar year.

The amount of paid vacation time received each anniversary year increases with the length of your employment but will reach a maximum amount per the table below:

Length of Employment	Earned Days
Six-month work anniversary	1 day
One-year work anniversary	2 days
Two-year work anniversary	3 days
Three-year work anniversary	4 days
Four-year work anniversary	5 days

More than Four years	negotiable
----------------------	------------

6.1.2 Vacation Day Use

Employees are authorized to use vacation days in .25 increments to cover authorized partial time missed from work. Employees may not use partial vacation day(s) for tardiness. The tables below show how partial vacation days will be deducted based on the employee's work schedule.

6.1.2.1 Production Staff (10 hour shifts)

Hours missed from work	Vacation Day (10 hr / day)
2.5 or less	.25
2.5 to 5 hours	.5
5 to 7.5 hours	.75
7.5 or more	1

6.1.2.2 Office Staff (8 hour shifts)

Hours missed from work	Vacation Day (8 hr / day)
2 or less hours	.25
2 to 4 hours	.5
4 to 6 hours	.75
6 or more	1

6.1.3 Use or Lose

Vacation does not accrue between work anniversary dates and may not be taken until it is earned. Vacation time must be used prior to the next anniversary date in which vacation days are given. For example, an employee with 2 vacation days as of his or her second work anniversary date must use these two days before the third-year anniversary date.

Employees are not entitled to pay in lieu of taking time off for vacation.

You will be required to use vacation time for personal or family illness if you do not have any sick days available. If vacation is taken during a company recognized holiday such as Christmas, the employee will not be charged a vacation day.

6.1.4 Requesting Vacation

Employees must use the "Vacation Request" form which is available from the company HR representative (see Figure 2).

Requests for vacation time should be made to the employee's supervisor four (4) weeks in advance to allow for appropriate planning within the department. Supervisory approval is generally based on a number of factors including operational needs and staffing requirements. Seniority may also be a factor when conflicting requests for vacation are received. AG Composites will do everything we can to accommodate earned vacation, but we reserve the right to deny requests based on operational needs.

6.1.5 Reporting Use of Vacation

Vacation time must be reported by the bookkeeper via the appropriate payroll method.

- Non-Exempt Hourly paid staff – vacation time is reported on the timecard or electronic timekeeping system.
- Forms submitted in advance of time taken will be entered with the appropriate payroll period.

6.2. Sick Day Policy

Earned sick days for employees are based on time worked. The table below will show how sick days are accrued. Sick days are not available until after six months of employment.

6.2.1 Sick Day Accrual

Employees accrue one day of paid sick leave at the end of each work anniversary up to the end of the fifth year. Employees are entitled to use their available sick day(s) beginning the day after their work anniversary.

Length of Service	Earned Days
Six-month work anniversary	1 day
One-year work anniversary	2 days
Two-year work anniversary	3 days
Three-year work anniversary	4 days
Four-year work anniversary	5 days

(five days is the maximum amount earned)

6.2.2 Sick Day Use

Employees are authorized to use sick days in .25 increments to cover authorized partial time missed from work. Employees may not use partial sick day(s) for tardiness. The tables below show how partial sick days will be deducted based on the employee's work schedule.

6.2.2.1 Production Staff (10 hour shifts)

Hours missed from work	Sick Day (10 hr / day)
2.5 or less	.25
2.5 to 5 hours	.5
5 to 7.5 hours	.75
7.5 or more	1

6.2.2.2 Office Staff (8 hour shifts)

Hours missed from work	Sick Day (8 hr / day)
2 or less hours	.25
2 to 4 hours	.5
4 to 6 hours	.75
6 or more	1

6.2.3 Authorized Uses of Paid Sick Day(s)

1. For the care of the employee or the employee's family member.
2. Family members are defined as:
 - a. A child;
 - i. Including a biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, or a child to whom the employee stands in loco parentis, is a legal guardian, or is a de facto parent, regardless of age or dependency status
 - b. A parent;
 - i. Including a biological, adoptive, de facto, or foster parent, stepparent, or legal guardian of an employee or a person who stood in place of the parents (loco parentis) when the employee was a minor child
 - c. A spouse
 - d. A registered domestic partner
 - e. A grandparent
 - f. A grandchild
 - g. A sibling
3. Care is defined as:
 - a. Mental or physical illnesses, injuries, or health conditions;
 - b. The need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of mental or physical illnesses, injuries, or health conditions; or
 - c. The need for preventive medical care.

If an employee wishes to use sick days for any reason not listed above (such as a legal matter) they must obtain approval from the Office Manager. Sick days cannot be used as vacation days.

6.2.4 Use or Lose

Sick days do not accrue between work anniversary dates and may not be taken until earned. Sick days may roll over up to a maximum of five days. If, on an employee's anniversary, they receive additional sick days and have not used all the sick time from the previous year, any time above five days is lost.

Employees are not entitled to pay in lieu of taking sick days.

You will be required to use vacation time for personal or family illness if you do not have any sick days available.

7. Dress Code and Public Image

As an employee of the Company, we expect you to present a clean and professional appearance when you represent us in or outside of the facility. The production team will be given company shirts that can be worn daily along with jeans or work style pants that are not frayed, torn or full of holes. Sweatpants, exercise clothing, leggings, and any spandex style clothing is not allowed. If in doubt, ask your supervisor. Clothing will be worn in the traditional fashion such as not overly baggy, not overly tight and not sagging and or worn below the belt / waist line. Shirts may be worn tucked in or untucked so long as the shirt does not pose a safety concern. Occasionally shorts will be allowed in specified departments. Shorts will adhere to the same requirements as pants - work style, no exercise clothing or spandex style allowed.

The dress code for office personnel or managers is business casual. Business casual, generally speaking, is clean jeans, slacks, khakis or dresses with a blouse. AG Composites shirts that are provided to office personnel and managers can be worn daily. Shoes should be clean. No open toe shoes allowed. Clothing will be worn in the traditional fashion such as not overly baggy, not overly tight and not sagging and or worn below the belt / waist line. Shirts may be worn tucked in or untucked so long as the shirt does not pose a safety concern.

We always want to present a professional environment so please use common sense in your choice of business attire.

8. Confidentiality and data protection

1. We want to ensure that private information about clients, employees, partners and our company is well-protected. The company email and internet system are considered property of AG Composites. How we handle confidential information is a serious matter. Examples of confidential information are:
 - Employee records
 - Financial information
 - Data of existing customers/partners/vendors and prospective customers
 - Product and technical information
 - Manufacturing processes and materials
2. As part of our hiring process, you will be required to sign a Confidentiality Agreement as part of the job requirements. In addition, you may be asked to sign a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) or a Non-Compete Agreement (NCA). We are also committed to:
 - Restricting and monitoring access to sensitive data
 - Training employees in appropriate facility and equipment security measures
 - Operating with secure networks as necessary to protect online data
 - Establishing protection practices (e.g. secure locks, data encryption, frequent backups, access authorization, video surveillance)
3. You must:
 - Lock or secure confidential information or sensitive equipment at all times
 - Shred confidential documents when they're no longer needed
 - Make sure you view confidential information on secure devices only
 - Only disclose information to other employees when it's necessary and authorized
 - Keep confidential documents inside our company's premises unless authorized otherwise
 - If using company devices, access the internet for work related items only
4. You must not:
 - Use confidential information for your personal benefit or profit
 - Disclose confidential information to anyone outside of our company
 - Replicate confidential documents or files and store them on any device without approval
 - Download or distribute material that is illegal, offensive or objectionable, such as pornography, discriminatory, harassing, or could incite violence.

This policy is important for our company's legality and reputation. Breaches in our confidentiality guidelines may result in termination. We may also discipline any unintentional breach of this policy depending on its frequency and seriousness.

9. Workplace safety and health

Our company is committed to creating a hazard-free workplace. To this end, we will ensure workplace safety through preventative action and emergency management.

9.1 Preventive action

Preventive actions are any actions we take to avoid injuries or illnesses related to the workplace. We will always stay alert to our facility, equipment and processes to uncover any health risks to employees. We will establish preventative measures to address any risks in our workplace.

At a minimum, we will:

- Establish an Environmental, Health and Safety Program
- Comply with all relevant federal, state and local occupational health and safety laws, including the federal Occupational Safety and Health Act
- Hold employee training sessions on safety standards and procedures
- Make sure employees who work in higher risk locations are safe
- Provide appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE) like gloves, protective uniforms and goggles
- Evaluate equipment and the facility regularly

We also expect you to take safety seriously. Always use protective equipment and follow standards whenever necessary. If you deliberately disregard our guidelines, we may terminate you for your own and others' safety.

9.2 Emergency management

Emergency management refers to our plan to deal with sudden catastrophes like fire, tornadoes, earthquakes or explosions. Our emergency management provisions include:

- Functional smoke alarms that are regularly inspected
- Fire extinguishers and other fire protection equipment that are easily accessible
- An evacuation plan posted in all appropriate locations
- Safety exits that are clearly indicated

9.3 Reporting Safety Concerns or Violations

At AG Composites, we value open communications at all levels. If at any time an employee identifies a safety concern or violation, they need to notify the HR representative immediately. Employees will not be looked upon negatively nor have any negative repercussions for communicating issues of this nature.

10. Tobacco Use

AG Composites is a tobacco-free workplace. Tobacco use is authorized during break times in designated outside areas only. Any other area inside our workplace is strictly tobacco-free. Tobacco is defined as smoking cigarettes, cigars, pipes, e-cigarettes (vaping), dip, snuff and/or chewing tobacco.

The following applies to tobacco users:

- Extinguish your cigarettes and discard them in outdoor ashtrays
- Avoid using tobacco when you have scheduled meetings with clients or vendors
- Avoid smoking near flammable objects and areas
- Ensure the tobacco area is kept clean
- Tobacco users will be required to clean the designated tobacco areas
- Dip cups or anything that is spit into must be discarded into outside trash cans after it has been used and never brought inside AG Composites' facilities

Setting off fire alarms and causing fires by smoking are serious offenses. If you are found responsible, you may face disciplinary action up to and including termination.

11. Drug-free workplace

AG Composites is a drug-free workplace. Whether you are an employee, contractor or visitor, you must not bring, use, give away or sell any drugs on company premises. If you are caught with illegal drugs or show that you are under the influence of substances, you will face disciplinary action up to and including termination. Here is a non-exhaustive list of prohibited and/or illegal drugs and substances:

- Heroin, cocaine, amphetamine, methamphetamine in any form
- marijuana, LSD, Speed, hashish, opium

1. Alcohol

We prohibit employees from consuming alcohol during working hours. Employees that are of legal drinking age may consume alcoholic drinks in moderation at company events. Maintaining professionalism while at company events is required.

2. Prescription drugs

If you feel that a prescription drug (e.g. an anxiety medication) unexpectedly affects your senses, thinking or movement, ask for the rest of your day off. If your manager suspects substance abuse, you may face disciplinary action.

You must not use medical marijuana in our workplace. We have the right to terminate you if your off-duty use of medical marijuana makes you unable to complete your job duties correctly.

We expect employees to be fully alert and capable of performing their duties at all times. We may terminate you if we conclude your prescription drug use creates severe safety risks. If you need to use prescription drugs for a limited time and you think they may impair your abilities, contact your HR rep to discuss options.

12. Cell Phone Policy

Cell phones are not permitted on the manufacturing floor by any employee.

Cell phones and/or electronic devices may be used during breaks or lunch times only in designated areas.

The company will not be liable for the loss of personal cell phones and/or electronic devices brought into the workplace. Employees will have a secure location to keep their cell phones or any other personal items.

Exceptions to the cell phone policy must be in writing and approved by the Operations Manager. The employee must have a copy of the exception at all times he/she has their cell phone on the production floor.

It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure their family or emergency contacts have the company phone number in the event they are trying to reach the employee during work hours.

In addition, filming or taking photos of company activities, products or processes is not permitted. Employees are asked to ensure that friends and family members are aware of this policy if they visit the facility.

Any violation of this policy will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

13. Social Media

Any online conduct that adversely affects a fellow employee or affects the Company's legitimate business interests, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Similarly, inappropriate postings, including but not limited to discriminatory remarks, harassment and threats of violence or similar inappropriate or unlawful conduct will not be tolerated and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

14. Progressive Discipline Policy

14.1 Purpose

To establish rules pertaining to employee conduct, performance, and responsibilities so that all personnel can conduct themselves according to certain rules of good behavior and good conduct.

The purpose of these rules is not to restrict the rights of anyone, but rather to help people work together according to the standards we have established for an efficient and courteous work-place.

Reasonable rules concerning personal conduct of employees are necessary if the facility is to function safely and effectively. You will be kept informed of department rules and changes to those rules by your supervisor or department head.

The company believes that you want to, and will, do a good job if you know what is required to perform your job properly. Your supervisor is responsible for ensuring that you know what is expected of you in your job.

Further, it is company policy that employees be given ample opportunity to improve in their job performance.

14.2 Policy

Degrees of discipline are generally progressive and are used to ensure that the employee has the opportunity to correct his or her performance.

14.3 Exceptions

For serious offenses, such as fighting, theft, insubordination, threats of violence, the sale or possession of drugs or abuse of alcohol on company property, etc., termination may be the first and only disciplinary step taken. Any step or steps of the disciplinary process may be skipped at the discretion of AG Composites after investigation and analysis of the total situation, past practice, and circumstances.

In general, several oral warnings should, at the next infraction, be followed by a written warning, followed at the next infraction by discharge. This is especially true in those cases where the time interval between offenses is short and the employee demonstrates a poor desire to improve his/her performance. Tardiness and absences are covered in the Attendance Policy.

14.4 Specific Offenses and Penalties

14.4.1 Group 1 Offenses:

- knowingly clocking in or out or altering the work time for another employee
- disorderly conduct on company property
- immoral conduct or indecency on company property
- interfering with the work of other employees
- inefficiency or lack of application of effort on the job
- violations of company policies
- contributing to unsanitary conditions or poor housekeeping
- imperiling the safety of other employees
- malicious gossip and/or the spreading of rumors

14.4.2 Group 1 Penalties:

- First offense: Oral or written reprimand
- Second offense: Reduction of hours and/or reduction of pay
- Third offense: Suspension or termination

14.4.3 Group 2 Offenses:

- possession of narcotics, or consuming narcotics on company property
- reporting for work in an intoxicated condition
- responsibility for instigating fighting on company property
- theft of company or employee property
- willful destruction of company or employee property
- insubordination (Refusal to perform service connected with an employee's immediate supervisor or refusal to obey any reasonable order given by an employee's supervisor or by management)
- misrepresentation of physical condition or other important facts in seeking employment
- refusal to perform work assigned to an employee
- possession of firearms, fireworks or explosives on company property without permission from management
- loss or willful destruction of serialized items

14.4.4 Group 2 Penalties:

- First offense: Suspension or termination

14.5 Probation

You may be placed on probation in connection with the written warning for a period of time determined by AG Composites. Wage increases, vacations or sick days will not be given during this period.

14.6 Discharge

When the employee is discharged as a result of a serious offense, or as the final step in an accumulation of infractions for which a warning notice or notices have been written, the employee will be discharged for cause instead of being given the option to resign, be laid off, or retire.

15. Dispute Resolution

In a perfect world, every employment relationship would be smooth and harmonious. However, there may be times when employees and employers disagree. These disagreements often arise in the context of involuntary employment termination, but there may be disagreements regarding the right to a promotion, expense reimbursement, or on other matters.

15.1 Mediation and Arbitration

All employees of the Company agree to first seek to mediate any dispute with the Company with a mediator from the American Arbitration Association (Alabama) or similar organization trained and experienced in employment disputes.

If mediation is not successful, both the Company and the employee agree to submit their dispute to Alabama arbitration. The arbitrator will be chosen from a panel presented by the American Arbitration Association or such other organization as is acceptable to both parties. The cost of the arbitrator will be split between the Company and the employee. Each party will be responsible for its own attorney or other related fees. Both the Company and the employee acknowledge that by agreeing to arbitrate, each gives up its right to litigate their employment dispute in court or to submit it to a jury. The decision of the arbitrator is final and binding.

However, either party may seek to have a court of competent jurisdiction enforce an arbitration award. In addition, the Company retains the right to seek injunctive or other relief in the case of misappropriation of trade secrets or other confidential information, or any other action by an employee which might reasonably be expected to lead to irreparable harm to the Company.

Any arbitration or court process can be a timely and costly endeavor. We encourage open lines of communications with the hopes that the Company and employee can find a solution before we ever reach a point where legal action is needed.

16. Firearms Policy

AG Composites LLC employees may NOT carry on their person any firearm while on or while using company property. Property is defined as buildings, parking lots, vehicles, and any other open, partially, or fully enclosed space owned or leased by AG Composites LLC. A firearm is defined as a rifle, pistol, shotgun, muzzle loader, high powered air rifle, or any other weapon commonly considered to be a firearm.

An employee of AG Composites LLC is allowed to keep a personal firearm in a privately-owned vehicle while the vehicle is parked on AG Composites LLC property. The vehicle must be locked any time the owner is not in the vehicle. If the vehicle cannot be locked, the firearm must be stored in a lockable container with the key or combination accessible to no one other than the owner.

Employees may not handle personal firearms at any time while they are on AG Composites property unless they are participating in a company event that has been approved by one of the managing members of AG Composites LLC.

Any and all FFL components on AG Composites property will be properly stored in a locked area while not being used for manufacturing or QC purposes and during non-working hours.

17. Personal Items

Personal items should be kept in designated areas: lockers, fridge, or freezer. Please do not put cans in the freezers.

When working on confidential projects, employees may be required to store cellphones in a designated area for security purposes.

Any personal items not stored in secure areas are the sole responsibility of the owner. AG Composites, LLC can not be held liable for the damage, loss, or theft of personal items brought onto our campus.

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the AG Composites Employee Handbook (“Handbook”). I understand that I am responsible for reading and abiding by all policies and procedures in this Handbook, as well as all other policies and procedures of the Company.

I also understand that the purpose of this Handbook is to inform me of the Company’s policies and procedures, and that it is not a contract of employment. Nothing in this Handbook provides any entitlement to me or to any Company employee, nor is it intended to create contractual obligations of any kind. I understand that the Company has the right to change any provision of this Handbook at any time and that I will be bound by any such changes. I also acknowledge that as an employee in Alabama my employment at AG Composites is considered “at-will.” This means the employer / employee relationship is based on the free will of both parties and therefore can be severed by either party at any time.

If you have any questions regarding this Handbook, please contact your HR rep.
