

4. Begin the evaluation by determining if the company has a quality management system in place. Use the table below to rate the quality risk:

Quality	Supplier Description	Service Provider
8	Distributor with no known QMS, cannot provide CofC	Provider who did not show up for work
7	Distributor with no known QMS, but will provide CofC	Provider who was overbudget, did not meet timeline, and had poor work
6	Distributor with no known QMS, but can provide manufacturers CofC	Provider with historically late, dirty or unresponsive crew but quality work
5	Supplier or service provider with positive quality history/relationship; grandfathered in	Licensed and bonded provider that did not meet timelines but provided quality work
4	Distributor with internal QMS, can provide manufacturer CofC	Licensed and bonded provider with previous tardiness or over-budget but quality work
3	Manufacturer with internal QMS, can provide CofC	Licensed and bonded new provider with personal recommendation
2	Distributor with a certified QMS process, active certificate on file, provides manufacturer CofC	Licensed and bonded, new provider with quality certification
1	Manufacturer with a certified QMS process, active certificate on file, provides CofC	Licensed and bonded with previous positive work relationship

